True Blues: Tozen in Tanzanite

Long a staple of the street-style crowd, denim has been elevated to new heights among top designers in many mediums. The resurgence of the all-American classic proves that blues of all hues are no longer confined to a pair of jeans.

Lunada Bay Tile's newest color, Tanzanite, plays off the popularity of moody blues and adds just a hint of lavender. Dressed up or down, you'll find that Tanzanite fits as comfortably in residential and commercial spaces as your favorite wardrobe staple.
